

AFRICAN ELEPHANT SCENE

The scene is laid in the Knysna Forest, Cape Colony, whence the largest of the three elephants, an immature male, and the vegetation were procured; the female, also immature, and the young one came from the herd in the Addo Bush, Cape Colony, which has now been exterminated. The group is exhibited in a bay in the Central Hall.

BRITISH MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

Museo Británico de Historia Natural

Fotografías

DESCRIPCIÓN

Impreso, monocromo, estructura formal bodegón, especialidad fotográfica registro. Impreso de toma fotográfica de elefantes en la selva.

FUENTE DE INFORMACIÓN

SURDOC