My dear Pedro.

On the morning of Chalk Wood. for the morning campaign - one of the most laborious & critical of my life, which I think that I should never ^{have} attempted had I of even any disposition on the part of the present government to have done me Justice - Genl. Lavie says that I have smarted very much & that he will use all the influence that he has with Bul to do me Justice - but that he is not on the most intimate friendship with his Excellency You must my dear Pedro assist me in this new undertaking with a confidential man - the makes that I wrote to you about Pavia so my leaving that - I am sorry to find that Dr. Pancho has with sent my gun for the restoration of which I am very much in need of - I leave this letter with Manabio as also that of Valparaiso & also of Dulce for the
