My dear Pedro

Some persons - to define you a person men for the most part are not a comprehensive person shown to me for the administration of justice always a the Court's design a minute of Chile a after what has just been said that of you wish to show a list of feelings more a to increase to blame to the words that Chile is more than liberal to the wisdom of La Patria by looking at the report of the Commission you to the Commission has been shown or paid out of thirty thousand dollars to be paid in two parts in London - But they do ^{not} show to the world the great extent of their generosity in not waiting to the Public all the facts of the case the hundreds of thousands of dollars which he received on prize money for legal captures, made against the North American a English flags - which amount with interest to the sum of more than four hundred thousand dollars - a you may see fifty thousand more which he has received hands on in the way of thanks which money must eventually be paid either by fair or foul means - He in his own account shows of human nature case of which he gives a full account to human life spent a distracted in the service to the world it is too well known that looked was sent to the ^{port} of Valparaiso by the force of being there, a in his honour and to the ancient laws of England he was desert of his right hand a his neck a honour killed out of the door by the looks of the nation he then returned to France when he met
